Pretend someone is painting your portrait.

How will you stand? Will you smile or put on a serious face?

Try out your pose.

A landscape is a painting or drawing of a view as seen by the artist

It may include mountains, rivers, fields, forest, buildings or roads.

There are a number of landscape paintings in the exhibition.

What ones can you find?

A portrait can tell us more than just what a person may look like. It can tell us what kind of person they are.

Do you think you would like to meet any of the people in the portraits?

What different colours do the artist use for their landscapes?

If the paintings had sounds what would you hear?

Which landscape would you most like to go for a walk in?
