

Climate Emergency Advisory Group (CEAG)

Meeting 20 November 2019

Items on the agenda:

- Pledge to work towards a goal of making Chippenham carbon neutral by 2030, taking into account Greenhouse Gas emission from both production and consumption
- Call the UK Government to provide the powers and resources to make the 2030 target possible
- Work with Wiltshire Council, surrounding parishes councils, other councils and relevant partners including businesses, educational establishments and civil society organisations, to determine and implement best practice methods to limit Global Warming to less than 1.5° C)
- Update from Chippenham Neighbourhood Plan, Chippenham Area Board, Presentation from the Waste Transition and Carbon Reduction Lead Officer at Wiltshire Council and Renewable Energy Strategy Workshops.
- An update from the Chairman of the Neighbourhood Plan Steering Group which looked at and highlighted the stages to achieve the Neighbourhood Plan, the objectives of the Neighbourhood Plan, what has already been completed and what work is currently in progression, especially in regards to infrastructure and sustainability within Chippenham.
- An update regarding the Chippenham Area Board hosting a Climate Change focused evening, with the aim to engage with the public.
- The Waste Transition and Carbon Reduction Lead Officer at Wiltshire Council, Tracy Carter presented to the group regarding the work Wiltshire Council have already carried out and the current progress of work since declaring a Climate Emergency in February 2019.
- The Centre of Sustainable Energy extended an invitation to the members of the Climate Emergency Advisory Group. The meetings are two part renewable energy strategy workshop.